

ANDROID SUPERSTATION - BIO

Android Superstation is a rock band from Orange County, California. It was formed in 2017 by partners in crime Marc and Heather, and made complete by Danny and James. Together, the group creates original music with a myriad of influences, from pop to prog to ambient industrial.

This band creates music that allows people to feel something. We live in an increasingly isolating and dehumanized world, but music is a great vector to remind people of their own humanity and to bring them together.

Beyond that, Android Superstation has created a universe that uses comics, short stories, and visual art to explore the depths of the human condition - good, bad, and otherwise.

BAND MEMBERS:

Danny Day Church - vocals, guitar

Hometown: Anaheim, California

Musical Influences: Against Me!, Taking Back Sunday, My Chemical Romance, The Killers, Foo Fighters, Kings of Leon, Green Day, Blink 182, Muse, Pink Floyd

Interests: People watching/behaviors, conspiracies, cooking/eating, gaming

Danny found his love for music at an early age when he was gifted a few punk rock records. Those records served as an outlet and a pastime and proved to be highly influential. Inspired to write like his heroes, he bought an acoustic guitar and began refining his skills. From then on he formed and fronted multiple bands, dreaming of one day being able to share his music with a captive audience. His biggest challenge was finding like-minded people to share his dream...until now.

Heather Moore - vocals, keyboards

Hometown: Tustin, California

Interests: Tea, History, books, Scifi, Hiking, avoiding people, cats, weird German music, figuring out what pitch that leaf blower is making

Despite over two decades of classical training, Heather managed to develop a healthy love for just about every other style of music as well -- especially if it involves weird samples or synthesizers. For unknown reasons, she is known to her friends and family as "The Bulldozer."

James Yan - bass

Hometown: City by the Bay

Musical Influences: Muse, Coldplay, Delirious?, Foo Fighters, Garbage, Genesis, Jamiroquai, Linkin Park, Petra, Queen, Rage against the Machine, Rush, the Beatles, Transatlantic, U2

Interests: Sports, rock-paper-scissors, Fortune cookies, Spreadsheets, board games, quoting random movie lines: "What is this? A Center for ants?"

Sir James spawned from the nether regions of the Golden State of California. The mighty supreme being had sent him from the holy kingdom to bring to the earthly peoples bass licks of epic proportions that would bring peace to all living creatures on this sacred rock called earth...

Marc Voss - drums

Hometown: Oldenburg, Germany

Musical Influences: Nirvana, Linkin Park, Dream Theater, Porcupine Tree, YES, Riverside, Storm Corrosion, Haken, King Crimson, Blink 182, Green Day, Chopin, Red Army Choir, Beethoven, Huey Louis and the News, Hans Zimmer, Neil Morse

Interests: History, Writing, Reading, Pancakes, Seals, Watermelons, Tyranny and Dictatorship

Marc has been playing drums and percussion for almost twenty years. Although his musical tastes are all over the musical spectrum, his playing has been most heavily influenced by rock, punk, metal and experimental progressive rock. Over the years he has been active performing with various bands and musical projects ranging from metal to 1940s jazz and has performed at venues across LA and Orange County as well as music festivals.
